BRAVES EXECUTIVES

TERRY McGUIRK

Chairman

Terry McGuirk is Chairman & CEO of Atlanta Braves Holdings, LLC, the parent company of the Atlanta Braves and Braves Development Company. In his role as Chairman and Control Person of the Atlanta Braves, McGuirk maintains executive oversight over all aspects of the Braves franchise including team and player personnel operations, business operations, Truist Park and representation of the Braves at Major League Baseball ownership meetings. McGuirk is also the Chairman of Braves Development Company, the Braves real estate development entity that owns and operates The Battery Atlanta mixed use development adjacent to Truist Park.

In 2021, McGuirk oversaw the holistic organizational efforts that culminated in the Braves' fourth World Series title.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979, was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales and distribution operations. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports, where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO.

He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System Inc., along with being chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College.

BOBBY COX

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bobby Cox is in his 15th season in a consulting role for the Braves after retiring from his legendary managerial career following the 2010 campaign.

Cox was awarded baseball's highest honor in 2014, when he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, along with fellow managers Tony La Russa and Joe Torre and former players Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux and Frank Thomas.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of his contract extension, Cox was given a consulting agreement. In his role, he advises and consults in all areas of baseball operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox works with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2,001-3 (.556). He won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington.

In his final season in 2010, the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card in franchise history. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90-or-more wins. That tied him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy, one behind John McGraw's record 16. Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for the most consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers' Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than four times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

He brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995, when the Braves defeated Cleveland, four-games-to-two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its "Mr. Baseball" award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to 1981, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College.

He and his wife, Pam, reside in Marietta, Ga. They have three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla. He has five other children, Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

Broke his own record – becoming the fastest pitcher, by innings pitched (123.1), to reach the 200-strikeout plateau within a single season since the mound moved to its current distance in 1893.

Last year, he recorded 200 strikeouts in 130.0 innings...Prior to last season, Hall-of-Famer LHP Randy Johnson held the record, reaching 200 strikeouts in 130.2 innings in 2001.

Strider is the fifth pitcher since 1893 to collect at least 200 strikeouts in his first two full major league seasons, joining: Cleveland's Herb Score (1955-56), New York's (NL) Dwight Gooden (1984-85), Los Angeles' (NL) Hideo Nomo (1995-96) and Texas' Yu Darvish (2012-13).

He's the fourth Braves pitcher, over the same span, with multiple 200-strikeout seasons, alongside teammate Charlie Morton (2021-22) and Hall-of-Famers John Smoltz, (5 times, 1992-93, '96-97, '06) and Phil Niekro, (three times, 1977-79).

- Strider's 354 strikeouts through his first 40 career starts are the most by any pitcher since the mound was set to its current distance in 1893, credit ESPN Stats.

- Started on September 1, 2022 vs. Colorado and pitched a career-most 8.0 innings, holding the Rockies to just two hits and no runs in the effort...The Braves beat the Rockies, 3-0, to give Strider his ninth win of the season.
- Set the single-game, Atlanta-era record with 16 strikeouts in the game, which also ranks second in all-time franchise history...John Smoltz previously held the Atlanta-era record, punching out 15 on two occasions: May 24, 1992 at Montreal and April 10, 2005 versus the New York Mets...Warren Spahn holds the all-time Braves record with 18 punchouts on June 14, 1952 versus the Chicago Cubs.
 - ♣ Strider's 16 strikeouts are the most in a single game by a Braves rookie in franchise history.
 - ♣ He became the fourth different rookie in the modern era to strike out at least 16 batters in a game without issuing a walk...Dwight Gooden had exactly 16 K's in two consecutive starts in 1984 (9/12 vs. PIT, 9/17 @ PHI)...Kerry Wood struck out 20 against Houston on May 6, 1998, and Jon Gray fanned 16 Padres on September 17, 2016.

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs).

In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. From December of 1989 until his death, he served as Braves' Senior Vice President and in February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

BOBBY COX

MANAGER	Full Name Robert Joe Cox
Bats Right	Throws Right
Height 6-0	Weight 185
DOB 5/21/1941	Resides Tulsa, OK
Years With Braves 1978-1981, 1990-2010
Number Retired 2011

Known as the consummate “players” manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League’s Wild Card. The 2010 campaign was Cox’s 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season’s final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach the milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time in consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league’s top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him MLB Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves beat Cleveland, four games to two, in the World Series. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to ‘81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club’s NL West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto’s manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. “It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn’t just fired him,” Turner said. “We need someone like him around here.” The Braves retired Cox’s uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, along with two of his former pitchers, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine.

TOM GLAVINE

PITCHER

Full Name Thomas Michael Glavine

Bats Left

Throws Left

Height 6-0

Weight 205

DOB 3/25/1966

Born Concord, MA

Years With Braves 1987-2002, 2008

Number Retired 2010

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine earned the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and he won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993. He won two Cy Young awards, first in 1991 and then in 1998. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation – led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six NL West Division titles and the League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics – in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets.

He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in wins (244) and strikeouts (2,091). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on – or just off – the corners of the strike zone. He also won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

Height 6-1

DOB 4/23/1977

Born Willemstad, Curacao

Years With Braves 1996-2007

Andruw Jones achieved notoriety as one of the premier defensive center fielders in baseball history. Combining an uncanny ability to get a jump on the ball with a strong arm, he earned 10 straight Gold Gloves while leading National League players at his position in putouts six times and assists on three occasions. Jones supplied plenty of offensive flare, as well. In Game 1 of the 1996 World Series, at age 19, he became the youngest player to hit a home run in the Fall Classic – going deep twice (in his first two at-bats) against the New York Yankees. Jones enjoyed his finest season at the plate in 2005, leading the majors with a then-franchise-record 51 home runs and the NL with 128 RBI. He was named Sporting News Major League Player of the Year and winner of the NL Hank Aaron Award and a Silver Slugger Award. A five-time All-Star, Jones played for 10 of Atlanta's record 14 division championship teams. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks fourth in extra-base hits (732); fifth in runs (1,045), doubles (330), home runs (368), total bases (3,185) and RBI (1,117); sixth in games played (1,761) and at-bats (6,408); and seventh in hits (1,683). He averaged 157 games per year over his 11 full seasons in Atlanta. Jones subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Texas Rangers, Chicago White Sox and Yankees. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2016. The native of Curacao has made substantial advances in National Baseball Hall of Fame balloting, rising from 7.3 percent in his first year of eligibility in 2018 to 61.6 percent in 2024.

INFIELDER Full Name Larry Wayne Jones, Jr.

Height 6-4 Weight 210
DOB 4/24/1972 Born DeLand, FL
Years With Braves 1993, 1995-2012

Chipper Jones went from a first overall draft pick to a first-ballot Hall of Famer. In between, he spent his entire 18-year major league career in a Braves uniform, playing in more games than anyone in Atlanta history (2,499). He is the Atlanta career leader in virtually every offensive category, including hits (2,726), doubles (549), home runs (468), RBI (1,623), runs (1,619), total bases (4,755), extra-base hits (1,055), walks (franchise-record 1,512), on-base percentage (franchise-record .401) and at-bats (8,984). His .303 batting average and .529 slugging percentage rank second and his 38 triples tied for second. On the franchise career lists, Jones is second to Hank Aaron in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, total bases and extra-base hits; third in home runs and slugging percentage; and tied for fifth in batting average. Jones is the lone switch-hitter in Major League Baseball history with a lifetime .300 batting average and 300-plus home runs. Only Frankie Frisch posted a higher average (.316), only Eddie Murray collected more RBI (1,917) and only Mickey Mantle (536) and Murray (504) slugged more homers. The Braves selected Jones in the 1990 amateur draft, and five years later he was runner-up for National League Rookie of the Year honors (to Los Angeles pitcher Hideo Nomo). Jones evolved into a premier third baseman and was an eight-time All-Star, including four starts. He was named the 1999 NL Most Valuable Player after batting .319 with 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI, 116 runs and 126 walks. Five other times he finished in the top 10 in MVP balloting. On July 5, 2007, Jones passed Dale Murphy for the most home runs in Atlanta annals. In 2008, Jones led the league with a .364 batting average (third-best in franchise history). He owns four of the top 10 season on-base percentages in franchise history, including an Atlanta-record .470 mark in 2008. In his first year of eligibility for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018, Jones received 97.2 percent of the vote. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2013 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015..

GREG MADDUX

PITCHER

Full Name Gregory Alan Maddux

Height 6-0 Weight 170

DOB 4/14/1966 Born San Angelo, TX

Years With Braves 1993-2003

Number Retired 2009

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three consecutive Cy Young awards. With Atlanta, Maddux led the NL in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968. In 1995, Maddux went 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and before playing for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) – the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, earning 97.2 percent of the vote (the 10th-highest total ever) in his first year on the ballot.

Years With Braves 1976-90
Number Retired 1994

The Braves drafted Dale Murphy No. 5 overall in 1974, but five years later he had yet to reach his potential as a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman. Then, manager Bobby Cox made Murphy a full-time outfielder and from 1980 to 1989, Murphy averaged 31 home runs and 93 RBI. He was the back-to-back NL Most Valuable Player in 1982 (.281, 36 home runs, 109 RBI and 23 stolen bases) and 1983 (.302, 36 home runs, 121 RBI, franchise-record 131 runs scored and 30 stolen bases). In 1983, Murphy became the sixth different player in baseball history with 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season. He led the NL with 332 total bases and tied for the lead with 36 home runs in 1984 and topped the circuit with 37 home runs and 118 runs scored the following year. From September 26, 1981, to July 8, 1986, Murphy played in 740 consecutive games. He appeared in seven All-Star Games – leading all vote-getters in 1985 – and won five Gold Glove Awards and four Silver Slugger Awards. Throughout his career, Murphy displayed a high moral character, receiving the Lou Gehrig Award in 1985 and the Roberto Clemente Award in 1988. On the Braves' career lists, he is fourth in games played (1,926), runs (1,103), hits (1,901), home runs (371), RBI (1,143) and total bases (3,394), and he is second in each category to Chipper Jones since the franchise moved to Atlanta. "Murph" was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2000.

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired 20-year-old John Smoltz from Detroit in 1987 for 36-year-old Doyle Alexander, he did so with an eye on the future. Smoltz delivered, excelling as both a starter and reliever over the next two decades. He is the only pitcher in MLB history with 200 wins and 150 saves. In 14 full seasons starting, he won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the NL or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times. Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 while fanning a franchise-record 276. Following "Tommy John" surgery that sidelined him for all of 2000, Smoltz closed for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third for the Cy Young Award. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000-strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011), second in saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with Boston and St. Louis in 2009. He won with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2005 and with the Branch Rickey Award in 2007. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012 and was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Famer in 2015, joining Glavine and Maddux in Cooperstown.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. The club broke ground on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. The approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. The architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. The general contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons until the club moved into the Georgia Dome in 1992 and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

TURNER FIELD (1997–2016)

Originally built to serve as the heart of the 1996 Summer Olympics, Turner Field became the home of the Braves in 1997. The team played there through the 2016 season, going 951-667 (.588) in the regular season at the park, while winning 10 NL East titles. The park sits between Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard to the north, Hank Aaron Drive to the east, Bill Lucas Drive to the south and Pollard Boulevard to the west. The $209-million stadium began construction in 1993 and opened three years later as Centennial Olympic Stadium. The 85,000-seat structure served as the centerpiece of the 1996 Summer Olympics, housing the opening and closing ceremonies, along with track and field events. After the completion of the Paralympic Games in August, the stadium was retrofitted into a baseball-only, open-air, natural grass facility over the course of seven months from September until April of 1997. Much of the north end of the stadium was taken out to install the outfield walls, while Entry Plaza, the main entrance to Turner Field, was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track-and-field complex were removed. The Braves played their first game at Turner Field on April 4, 1997, beating the Chicago Cubs, 5-4. The club drew 3,464,488 fans in their first season, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Over their 20 seasons at the ballpark, the Braves welcomed 52,439,513 regular season fans to Turner Field, while surpassing two million fans in every year. The Braves beat the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, in Turner Field's final game on October 2, 2016. The club moved their offices out of the ballpark in December of that year, with Georgia State University taking control after purchasing the stadium for $22.8 million.

ATLANTA'S OPENING DAY RECORDS

HOME RUNS

The Braves have hit 58 home runs on Opening Day since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966. Five players (Dale Murphy, Fred McGriff, Andruw Jones, Brian McCann, and Freddie Freeman) hold the Atlanta-era record with three career homers in openers, while Joe Torre, McGriff and Edgar Renteria are the only Atlanta Braves with a multi-homer game on Opening Day. In 2018, Nick Markakis hit the only game-ending home run on Opening Day in Atlanta franchise history, driving a 1-1, ninth-inning pitch out to right field to give the Braves an 8-5 win.

CREDENTIAL APPLICATION PROCESS: In accordance with MLB, in order to attend a Braves regular-season game, only credentials submitted through <https://credentials.mlb.com> will be considered, and credentials will only be issued to legitimate news-gathering agencies that have applied via the website. Requests made in-person, via email, or by phone will not be honored.

BBWAA cards, including gold card and lifetime membership cards, will be allowed at Truist Park for the 2025 season. For local media holding BBWAA cards, please notify a member of the Braves PR staff if you are planning to cover a game in person so that you may be included in the media tally for that particular day.

For any questions related to the credential application process, please contact the Braves' credential representative, Mitch George, at mitch.george@braves.com.

ARRIVAL TO TRUIST PARK (PARKING AND CREDENTIAL PICK UP): Specific parking information will be conveyed to media upon their approval for a credential. Please check your email for parking details prior to arrival.

All writing press, photographers and videographers can pick up their credential upon entrance to the ballpark at the Third Base Gate. All media needing access to the "TV Compound" area will enter through the guard shack at Gate One, adjacent to the TV truck entrance on Circle 75 Parkway.

A government-issued photo ID (driver's license or passport) is required to pick up a credential. Each individual must pick up their own credential.

The credential must be visible at all times inside Truist Park.

For regular season games, Truist Park will open to media four (4) hours prior to first pitch.

PRESS BOX: The Truist Park press box is located in the upper deck, behind home plate, around sections 323-329. All media seating will be assigned during the 2025 season. Media may be asked to sit in auxiliary broadcast booths or other select locations.

Upon arrival, writing press may take the Third Base elevators to level "UL" to access the press box.

Wi-Fi can be accessed using the network "MLB-Press" with the password "Hom3Run!"

Water, soft drinks, coffee and snacks are available in the press box break room. To get there, take the third base elevator to the upper level ("UL") and take a right; the entrance will be on the left. The table and chairs in the main seating area are reserved for the writing press covering the game.

INTERVIEW ACCESS: During the 2025 season, all player, manager, and coach availability will take place in-person either in the clubhouse or interview room. Players, managers and/or coaches will be made available before and after each regular-season game (home and road).

Media members attending open clubhouse must have articulable coverage objectives.

FIELD ACCESS: Media may access the field via the Third Base tunnel by taking the Third Base elevator to Field Level. The field access point will be clearly marked near the visiting clubhouse. They will have access to the warning track behind home plate, ranging from first base to third base. Media may also access the dugout during the 2025 season.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are allowed to shoot inside Truist Park. The exact shooting location is fluid, and Braves photographer Kevin D. Liles (kdiles@gmail.com) will be in touch with specifics prior to the game. Please speak with him or another Braves communications staffer prior to shooting.

Still photography is prohibited within the press box.

TELEVISION AFFILIATES & VIDEOGRAPHERS: Television affiliates will be allowed inside Truist Park for pre-game access and post-game access. Gameday video can be captured for newsgathering purposes only. Ancillary programming, such as pre-game and post-game shows, highlight shows, coaches shows, year-in-review, week-in-review shows, and videocasts are not permitted.

Videographers are allowed to conduct live shots from the Truist Park concourse. They can also be shot from the warning track during batting practice (see "Field Access" for more information) and the pre-game ceremony. The affiliate's talent and/or other personnel will be given access to the press box or may join the videographer.

All live shots during the rightsholder window once the game starts need to be conducted outside Truist Park. Please make the Braves corporate communications staff aware in advance of your arrival (Sarit Babboni, Karely Avila Ledesma, Shawn Johnson). They will work with the television affiliate/videographer to let them know where they can shoot from.

During the game, shooting/recording of any kind inside the ballpark is strictly prohibited. Following the game, recorded video is permissible inside the ballpark and can be posted once official game broadcast is off the air.

TV sets, drones, and sponsored segments/content are not allowed in The Battery Atlanta or Truist Park.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 26 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 28.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

ROOKIE RULE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 26-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

DAY / NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

INJURED LISTS

7-DAY INJURED LIST: Introduced in the 2011 season, the 7-day disabled list was created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. A 7-day IL stint cannot be backdated by more than five days.

10-DAY INJURED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

15-DAY INJURED LIST: The 15-day injured list is specifically for pitchers and two-way players. It allows clubs to remove injured pitchers from the 26-man active roster while keeping them on the 40-man roster.

60-DAY INJURED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

REGULATION GAME

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety. Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969.
